WOULD YOU GAIN A MAIDEN'S HEART. Madrigal. By ROBERT SLOMAN, Mus. Bac. Oxon. Dedicated by permission to Mr. H. Leslie's Choir.

"To write a good madrigal is no easy task. In addition to genius and feeling, it demands a large amount of musical scholarship; and so perfect are the models of this class of composition—the Italian and English madrigals of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, the Augustan age of pure vocal harmony—that the production of a madrigal like those of Marenzio or Wilbye, has been said to be as arduous as an attempt to rival a statue of Praxiteles or Phidias."

Mr. Sloman's music has a relish of the olden time. The separate parts are exceedingly melodious, and the effect produced by their combination is full and rich, while there is not a speck upon the transparent clearness of the harmony. Altogether this is a charming madrigal, and does honour to its author.—The Press.

"At the present time there are many families who have musical meetings at home once or twice during the month, and to these we recommend this charming madrigal."—The Ladies Treasury.

Price, nett, 1s.; or the four separate parts, 1s. Lamborn Cock, Addison, and Co., 62 and 63, New Bond-street, London; or of the Composer, Welshpool.

To be published shortly, by subscription, price 4s., or bound in cloth, 6s.; or three copies for 10s. and 15s.

NEW MASQUE-CANTATA, "THE TRIUMPH OF LABOUR,"

Written for, and performed with great success on, the occasion of the Inauguration Ceremony of the SOUTH-EASTERN INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION,

In the Painted Hall, Greenwich Hospital, Saturday, October 28, 1865, PRINCIPAL VOCALISTS,

Madame WEISS, Miss WILKINSON, Mr. CUMMINGS, and Mr. WEISS. Words by JAMES WATKINS, L.C.P.

The Music by HENRY BAUMER, Professor R.A.M., and Dulwich Coll.

Dedicated (by permission) to the Right Hon. the Viscountess Sydney.

The Work will be published in 8vo., in complete Vocal Score, with Pianoforte Accompaniment, the Stave and Score being large and distinctly engraved.

The Libretto of the Cantata (though written for the special occasion on which it was so successfully performed) is such as to render its performance equally suitable for any festive event, or ordinary concert; at the same time, the Music itself possessing a sufficient degree of difficulty and interest to render it an appropriate work for the study of any Choral Society (Amateur or Professional); the entire Work occupying about one hour in performance.

Subscribers are requested to send their names and addresses to Mr. Baumer at their earliest convenience, stating the number of copies and description of binding required. The copies will be forwarded by post or otherwise as soon as published.

Letters should be addressed, Dulwich College, S., and Post-office Orders made payable to Mr. Henry Baumer, at the Post-office, Dulwich, S.

From the Daily News.

"* * * after which a Masque-Cantata, written and composed for the occasion, the words being composed by Mr. J. Watkins, and the music by Mr. Henry Baumer, entitled The Triumph of Labour, was performed with great success. * * * The piece was admirably sung, the solo parts being taken by Miss Eleonora Wilkinson, Madame Weiss, Mr. Cummings, and Mr. Weiss, and was received with loud applause, Mr. Baumer being called forward and repeatedly cheered."

From the Orchestra, November 11, 1865.

"The production of a new Cantata, The Triumph of Labour, took place at the opening of the South-Eastern Industrial Exhibition, in the Painted Hall of Greenwich Hospital, on Saturday, 28th October. Mr. Baumer (Professor of Music at Dulwich College) has been fortunate in having his work interpreted so ably by chorus and principals—Mr. and Mrs. Weiss, Miss Wilkinson, and Mr. Cummings. * * * The work is of great merit; the choruses broad in the phrases, tuneful in the melodies, rich in the harmonies."

From the Greenwich and Deptford Chronicle.

"While we are on the subject of music, we may mention that the Cantata, The Triumph of Labour, which was first performed at the opening of the late Exhibition, and which created such a very favourable impression on all who then heard it, is about to be published with some additional movements. We shall take occasion on its production again to notice it; and it is with pleasure we hear that a very short time will possibly elapse before it is again publicly performed, and we trust, under even more favourable auspices than on the day of its first performance."

TO PURCHASERS OF ORGANS.—A Gentleman residing in a midland county, who has had great experience in choir-work, and who, though not in any way connected with the trade, is thoroughly conversant with Organ-building detail, having made it a study for many years, offers his assistance to the Clergy and others about to purchase new instruments or enlarge existing ones. The extravagant prices charged by many builders when dealing with those who possess but little practical knowledge of the subject, may be avoided by sending to the Advertiser information as to the amount to be expended, size of building, and (in case of enlargements), an accurate description of the instrument in its present state, when he will forward a carefully drawn specification (with drawings, if necessary), showing exactly what ought to be obtained for the sum named. In nearly all cases a saving in cost, or an increase in the value of work, of from 10 to 25 per cent. may be thus realised. Terms, 2½ per cent. upon the sum expended. Address H., care of Messrs. Novello and Co., 69, Dean-street, Soho, London, W.
